

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's improve ourselves!

Learning Outcome

Understand detailed descriptions of real or imaginary events and experiences in present, past or future and in spoken or written texts.

Ask your partner:

- What do you think of people who take courses to improve aspects of their personalities? Why do you think they do that?
- What kinds of things can someone learn in life-coaching?

Can Do Statements

- I can accurately support my ideas.
- I can discuss plans, hopes and expectations for the future.
- I can talk about what I will be doing or what I'm going to do.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa takes a self-improvement *course.

* "Self-improvement", also known as self-help, is a type of literature and education.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Amy: Good morning everyone, and welcome to your first session of life-coaching! Before we start with our session today, I'll introduce myself. I'm Amy Watson. I'm going to give you the tools to make your life fuller and more rewarding. With five sessions you are going to expand your potential, reduce stress, learn to sustain your success, and nurture your relationships. Essentially, there is no magic here. We will be doing exercises on discovering your inner strength, and that discovery will lead to true success. If you can commit to being here for five sessions, you will reach a level of contentment by learning techniques to facilitate relaxation and peace of mind.

Vanessa: Hi everyone. I'm Vanessa. A lot of my ideas seem to be changing since my friend Sally moved away. I work in a restaurant. More specifically, I am the manager. While I love my job and working with food, I'm hoping to realize my full potential. Furthermore, I always feel I'm holding myself back and that I would benefit from a course such as this one. When I finish this course, I feel that positive change will be possible.

Amy: Thanks Vanessa, and what about you?

Will: Hi. I'm Will. Although it's taken me some time to reach the decision to come here, I feel quite pleased to be with you today. I will be heading to South Asia to teach in a couple of months, but have realized I experience anxiety and also need to boost my self-esteem. At any rate, I guess I feel ready to change a few things and just open up to new possibilities. When I gain a little more confidence, I am going to propose to my girlfriend.

Amy: That's great Will. How about the next person ...

Let's Practice!

Amy is talking about her professional expectations.

Instructions: Match the beginning of the sentence in Column A to the end of the sentence in Column B. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

COLUMN A

1. When I finish this course
2. While I love my job and working with food, I'm hoping
3. Meanwhile, I expect to develop certain skills to reach
4. When that happens I'm planning
5. Then I hope to have reached everything

COLUMN B

- a. on opening my own business.
- b. I feel that positive change will be possible.
- c. I've worked for.
- d. what I want for my professional life.
- e. to realize my full potential.

Let's Practice!

Will supports his ideas about his future decisions.

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

I'm going to propose / As soon as / I feel ready to change /
I feel quite pleased to be with you today / open up to new possibilities

Although it's taken me some time to reach the decision to come here, _____.
At any rate, I guess _____ a few things are just _____.
_____ I gain a little more confidence, _____ to my girlfriend.

Extension Activity

Research and choose a self-improvement course.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go to the library or online to find a course on self-improvement.
- Take notes on what the course offers.
- Tell a friend what you will be doing and learning in the course if you take it.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I research and read about a self-improvement course.

☐ ☐

I write notes about the course.

☐ ☐

I tell a friend what I will be doing in the course.

☐ ☐

I support my ideas accurately.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- rewarding (adjective): satisfying
e.g. I am going to give you the tools to make your life fuller and more rewarding.
- to expand (verb): to grow larger e.g. With five sessions you are going to expand your potential, reduce stress and learn to sustain your success.
- essentially (adverb): basically e.g. Essentially, there is no magic here.
- contentment (noun): satisfaction
e.g. If you can commit to being here for five sessions, you will reach a level of contentment.
- peace of mind (noun): mental calm e.g. We teach learning techniques to facilitate relaxation and peace of mind.
- to hold oneself back (verb): to stop oneself from doing something e.g. Furthermore, I always feel I am holding myself back from doing my best.
- to boost one's self esteem (verb): to raise one's confidence e.g. I experience anxiety and also need to boost my self esteem.
- at any rate (adverb): anyway
e.g. At any rate, I guess I feel ready to change a few things.
- to open up (verb): to expand
e.g. I feel ready to change a few things and just open up to new possibilities.

Learning Points

Future Time Clauses: if, When

You use time clauses to give information about time and sequence.

You use the words If or When to give an information about a sequence of events in the future. Future time clauses explain what needs to happen or which condition needs to be satisfied before a future event can occur.

You use the first conditional with these time clauses.

Structure:

If/When+ Subject + Simple Present tense, Subject + will/be going to + Simple Present tense

If means on the condition that ...

If I go home early, I will watch a movie.*

When means at the time of doing something.

When I finish my work, I will leave.*

Examples:

- If you can commit to being here for five sessions, you will reach a level of contentment by learning techniques to facilitate.*
- When I finish this course, I feel that positive change will be possible.*

Learning Points

Future Continuous Tense: Will and Going to

You use the Future Continuous tense to talk about something happening at a particular time in the future.

The action will have started before that moment but it will not have finished at that moment.

For example:

I will be working at 4 p.m. tomorrow.

There are two ways to use the Future Continuous tense:

- You can use the Future Continuous to indicate that a longer action in the future will be interrupted by a shorter action in the future.

Structure: will + be + present participle of the verb or am/is/are + going to be + present participle of the verb. Structure:

will + be + present participle of the verb or am/is/are + going to be + present participle of the verb.

We will be doing exercises on discovering your inner strength, and that discovery will lead to true success.

They will be studying Philosophy until the end of the semester.

I am going to be working on the second floor when you come to get me tonight.

Are you going to leave for the party as soon as he calls?

Examples:

- I am going to give you the tools to make your life fuller and more rewarding.
- With five sessions you are going to expand your potential, reduce stress, and learn to sustain your successes.

